What Employers Need to Know About COVID-19

PRESENTATION RECORDINGS

"The Families First Coronavirus Response Act and other COVID-19 Updates"

Thank you for your interest in the "Q&A discussion and presentation conducted by Jennifer Sandberg, partner with law firm Fisher Phillips. Due to exceptionally high demand for the webinar we pre-recorded the presentation and also recorded the live Q&A discussion for you to watch at your convenience.

PLEASE NOTE: The presentation was recorded on March 24 before the Department of Labor (DOL) issued its guidance late in the day. Based on the DOL guidance, as of today, March 25, the new law will go into effect Wednesday, April 1, 2020. Currently, the DOL guidance is just that - "guidance." The DOL still must issue implementing regulations.

This recorded presentation provides an overview of the impact on employers of the Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA), including the emergency expansion of the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and a new federal paid sick leave law, among other significant issues.

We are happy to provide you with the information you need to address the impact of COVID-19 on your business and your employees. Thank you for your flexibility in helping us to ensure that this valuable information is disseminated to the widest audience.
